Dear Ladies of the Woman's Club of Winter Park, Inc.,

During the month of February, we have seen the Woman's Club at its best.

Our program of art history (Michelangelo), and hearing of the early Winter Park history (through the eyes of Jack Rogers remembering his mother, Evelyn) were so interesting and informative.

If you missed our lite lunch meeting, you not only missed wonderful food and great fellowship, but one of the highlights of the year. We were first entertained by the adorable children from the Welbourne Nursery and Kindergarten, and then, Chevalier Lovett, Cheryl Tschanz and Elizabeth Ingram presented their program "Love, Lust & Longing." With all the anxieties and concerns of today, the program was pure joy! It was a wonderful Valentine's gift for all of us. Hopefully, Chev will be willing to work with us on other events during the coming year.

And the generous hearts of our membership were so evident in the Cookie-Valentine party for 50 children at the Meadows (part of the Winter Park Housing Authority), as well as the preparation and delivery of 25 beautifully wrapped boxes of cookies and chocolates for members and former members.

These ladies have missed our meetings for various reasons, and we have also missed them. We wanted them to know we were thinking of them, and we appreciate all that they have meant to the Woman's Club of Winter Park for so many years.

And we offer a big thank you to Nancy Miles for her leadership in chairing our very successful Woman's Show. The event was well attended by our members, and we realized another $2000 to be used for charitable giving.

Remember the Langford? By Dr. Ed Gfeller

From 1956 to 2000, the Langford Hotel was a center of social activities in Winter Park. It seemed as though it was the town's epicenter for everything social from shows and weddings, to pool gatherings. Dr. Ed Gfeller was born in Switzerland, studied medicine in Berne, then neuroscience at John Hopkins, before receiving Psychiatric Training in Baltimore. His love for history allowed him to produce 2 Winter Park documentaries and a biography of E. Grover.

Jan Clanton worked at the Orlando Museum of Art from 1985 until 2014. She retired as the Associate Curator of the museum. Art appreciation is her specialty.

Messages from the Woman's Club Committees

Charitable Giving

Valentine's Day Party at The Meadows was a Success!

Approximately 50 children at The Meadows enjoyed a festive party on Valentine's Day. Balloons, valentines, cookies, and lemonade were all provided by the woman's club. Thank you, all you wonderful bakers, for making such scrumptious cookies for this event!

Our next big project benefits the Orlando Union Rescue Mission. As in previous years, we will be filling up purple bags with toiletries to be given out to their clients at their Good Friday service and luncheon. Also, this year, we have been asked to donate new sneakers, all sizes, children through adult, for their clients. Purple bags will be available as of the 1st meeting in March and are due back no later than the 23rd, as are the sneakers. Please support this worthy project.

Dress for Success

As you start your spring cleaning, please look through your closet and discover that cute blouse, skirt, dress, slacks, etc. that you haven't worn in ages, and bring them to the club to support our Dress for Success project. Dress for Success supports women who are preparing to go into the work force but have little in the way of appropriate clothes for a business setting. We collect clothes all year.

Woman's Show Thank You

A Very Large Thank You goes out to our club members who helped out at the Woman's Show.

We sold club cookbooks, some garden books, lots of George's lunches and even got cash donations. It was wonderful to see so many Woman's Club members who came and shopped!

Our net amount after publicity and a few other expenses will be around $1,950.00, even more for our Charitable Giving group to donate to local charities.

In The Press

The photos from our February programs and events are on our website! We invite you to visit our blog to see more photos, like Mr. Rogers and Ms. Herman's presentations and more.
